Category questions

4. FESTIVALS AND EVENTS

This category is open to festivals or events (including exhibitions) that a) create substantial economic impact within the local community, b) attract visitors from intrastate and/or interstate, c) generate regional media profile, and d) positively promote the destination. They may be one-off or recurring.

Important notes:

- Entrants in this category cannot enter Category 3.
- The numbers after each sub-question refer to the judges' weighting.

Important reminders:

- Entrants must ensure their answers refer specifically to the product and category they are entering.
- Entrants are encouraged to answer questions to highlight participation in tourism-related accreditation programs.

Tip for all questions:

- Prior to using an acronym, please state phrase or name in full followed by the acronym in brackets.

Question 1. Product (20 points)

- Provide a general overview of the nature and history of your festival/event. You must demonstrate your eligibility for entry in this category as outlined in the descriptor above. (5)
- Detail the number and origin of visitors attracted and what methods were used to determine this data? (5)
- Describe the program of activities you stage and the tourism experiences offered. (5)
- Describe the services and facilities you offer. (5)

TIPS: Part a) Consider stating where the festival/event is staged geographically (perhaps include a map shot) and including a picture to help judges visualise your festival/event.

Part d) Services and facilities could include venue, catering, transport, information booths, accommodation etc.

Question 2. Business Plans (20 points)

- Describe the key features of your business plan for example goals, strategies and outcomes. (8)
- What were your major funding sources and demonstrate how you achieved the planned financial outcome? If you did not, explain. (2)
- Describe the risk issues you have identified and summarise the risk mitigation strategies you have put in place. (4)

- d) Demonstrate your involvement in, and contribution to, the tourism industry. Explain how it contributes to the success of your business and the tourism industry as a whole. (6)

TIPS: Part a) Consider including marketing, product development, human resources, budget, financial performance and operational matters as part of your answer.

Part c) Risk management relates to all parts of your business including risk to the visiting public, specific business-related risk and Occupational Health and Safety. Consider using a practical example or detail an incident and outcome to prove how your risk management strategy works. Also consider displaying information in a matrix form and identifying levels of risk.

Part d) Demonstrate your involvement at local, state and/or national level. Examples could include cooperation with local and state tourism authorities, tourism accreditation, active membership of industry associations, leadership in industry forums, involvement in trade shows etc.

Question 3. Marketing (20 points)

- a) Who were your target markets and how did you identify them? (4)
- b) Describe the marketing strategies used to attract each target market and detail the success/outcomes of those strategies. (4)
- c) What is your distinctive difference and how do you promote it to attract each of your target markets? (2)
- d) How does your marketing strategy capitalise/link with local/state tourism marketing directions? (4)
- e) Outline the media coverage achieved at local, state, national and, if relevant, international level. (4)
- f) Demonstrate how potential visitors are provided with an accurate and responsible depiction of what to expect from the festival/event. (2)

TIPS: Consider all arms of marketing (e.g. sales, advertising, public relations, word of mouth and e-marketing) where appropriate. Your objective should be to demonstrate a clear plan supported by market research and the results achieved.

Part a) Explain what research you used to identify them.

Part b) Displaying your target markets, strategies and outcomes in a table format is recommended. Ideally there should be a strategy and outcome described for each target market listed in your answer to part a). Consider all elements of marketing (e.g. digital, mobile, social networking, sales, advertising, PR and word of mouth) where appropriate. Your objective should be to demonstrate a clear plan supported by market research and the results achieved. You should also discuss any changes implemented in your business based on the results, where appropriate.

Part f) relates to your marketing material e.g. brochures, flyers, advertising, website etc. and keeping it up to date if your festival/event is ongoing.

Question 4. Customer Service and Professional Development (20 points)

- a) Explain how you achieve and maintain quality customer service throughout your festival/event. (8)
- b) How do you identify and provide for people with specific needs? (4)
- c) State the number of people working with the festival/event and explain how you identify and determine professional development needs of staff including volunteers. (4)
- d) Describe the range of training/skill development programs undertaken. (4)

TIPS: Part a) Consider how you stay abreast of industry developments. Other points to consider could include your repeat business strategy, feedback collection and changes implemented based on feedback.

Part b) Specific needs could include language, physical, intellectual, dietary and other special needs e.g. groups, special interest etc.

Part c) You should consider fulltime, part-time, casual and volunteers.

Part d) Points to consider could include the objective of staff/self training/skill development programs, how they were measured, the extent of uptake and outcomes for the festival/event.

Question 5. Sustainability and Innovation (20 points)

- a) Describe and demonstrate your commitment to environmental sustainability. (7)
- b) Describe how your festival/event benefits and respects the local community values and culture. (7)
- c) Describe any innovations that have taken place during the qualifying period to improve your festival/event and the specific benefits achieved. (6)

TIPS: Part a) could include energy and water conservation, restoring the site after your festival/event, waste management, recycling, tree planting, engaging environmentally sensitive procedures, noise management, parking, etc.

Part b) Benefits to the local community could include apprenticeships, in-kind contributions, employment of local residents, partnerships with community-based organisations, free entry, etc. The use of local products and services could include food and beverage suppliers, service providers, tradespeople, and local building material. If local products and services are not available, briefly explain.

Part c) Include innovations that have taken place to improve your visitor experience, infrastructure development, new marketing ideas or sales activities. Innovations do not include routine repairs and maintenance.

Total score: 100 points.
