

9. VISITOR INFORMATION SERVICES

This category recognises the consistent delivery of high quality and face to face information services to the visitor. It is open to Visitor Information Centres/Tourist Offices, Local Tourist Associations and Regional Tourism Organisations.

1. TOURISM EXCELLENCE (20 marks)

- a) Demonstrate your eligibility for this category as related to the descriptor above and provide a brief overview on the nature and history of the business. (6)
- b) What tourism products, experiences and services do you offer visitors? (5)
- c) Describe your commitment to tourism excellence. (4)
- d) Demonstrate your involvement in the tourism industry and describe the services you offer tourism industry stakeholders/partners. (5)

TIPS

- a) Take care to ensure you have entered the right category and that your response aligns to the category descriptor. Failure to demonstrate your eligibility will be reflected in your score. Refer to the ABOUT US section of your website as this may assist with this response. Judges will want to know how and when the business started, who works in the business, where it is located and how it has developed over the years. A map will be helpful here.
- b) The focus of this question is tourism products/experiences/services that you offer visitors
- c) Explain your values, philosophy and commitment to excellence and what makes you stand out from other Visitor Information Service providers.
- d) Explain the services you offer tourism industry partners (for example membership services etc.) and how you have been actively involved with the tourism industry locally, regionally and nationally.

2. BUSINESS PLANNING (20 marks)

- a) Provide an overview of the key features of your business plan including goals, strategies and outcomes with a specific focus on your Visitor Information Services. (6)
- b) Describe any innovations that have taken place during the qualifying period to improve your experience/product/service and demonstrate how these innovations enhance the experience for visitors to your destination. (6)
- c) What investment has been made in staff training and development and how has this improved the services provided to your guests/visitors? (4)
- d) Describe the main risks for your visitor information service and the risk mitigation measures you have implemented. (4)

TIPS

- a) Introduce this section with your mission and/or vision statement. A 3-column table would be useful here to display the information. Make sure you use measurable goals and outcomes.
- b) This is a 2-part question. An innovation can be defined as “The process of introducing new or significantly improved goods or services and/or implementing new or significantly improved processes.” (Source: Australian Bureau of Statistics). Be sure to include the impact the innovation had on your business and the destination overall
- c) Describe your commitment to training. How do you ensure you and/or your staff gain the correct knowledge and skills to carry out their job? Investment does not need to be financial.
- d) Consider all aspects of business risk not just workplace health and safety.

3. MARKETING (20 marks)

- a) Who are the target markets for your Visitor Information Service? (5)
- b) How do you know your Visitor Information Service meets the needs of your target markets? (5)
- c) What are your unique selling points and demonstrate how you communicate these through marketing conducted by your Visitor Information Service? (5)
- d) Describe the innovative marketing strategies you have implemented to encourage new and/or repeat business to your Visitor Information Service and demonstrate the success of these initiatives. (5)

TIPS

- a) This question seeks to understand who you have aimed your marketing towards. Consider for example; who they are, where they are from, how old they are, how they purchase travel, what motivates and inspires them and how your product meets their expectations.
- b) What research have you conducted or used to determine your target markets? How do you know the target markets you identified in Q 3 a) are right for you?
- c) What makes your destination different from your competitors? Consider for example; size, location, exclusivity, services, facilities. What methods do you use to communicate these to the target markets you have mentioned in Q 3 a)?
- d) What have you done differently to attract your customers? Consider for example; social media, digital advertising, apps. The response needs to focus on innovative approaches to marketing. Remember to also answer the second part of the question and expand on how these new activities have been successful.

4. CUSTOMER SERVICE (20 marks)

- a) Describe your customer service philosophy/values. (5)
- b) Explain how your Visitor Information Service provides for guests/visitors with specific needs. (5)
- c) Describe how you measure customer satisfaction and identify areas for improvement. (5)
- d) What processes do you have in place to respond to customer complaints? (5)

TIPS

- a) Consider the systems and procedures you have in place to deliver outstanding service. How do you make an effort to understand their needs, welcome them, respect them, thank them and do business with them?
- b) Demonstrate how you consider visitors' special and specific needs. Think about who your customers are and their specific requirements.
- c) What processes do you have in place to understand how your customer feels about your product service? For example; feedback forms, monitoring social media, blogs, mystery shoppers etc. Consider providing a case study/example where you have implemented a change based on customer feedback. Consider also how you manage customer service delivery from your tourism partners.
- d) Consider how you receive feedback for example telephone, email or User Generated Content such as blogs and TripAdvisor. Explain how you respond to each of these different communication channels. Explain how you manage negative feedback on tourism products/services within your destination.
