ABORIGINAL AND TORRES STRAIT ISLANDER TOURISM EXPERIENCES

A marketing strategy is a planned, coordinated initiative with a measurable objective, targeted audience, supporting research, defined activities, and evidence of impact. Single actions (e.g., one social post or one email) would not qualify as a strategy.

It is recommended that you include examples that differ from any of the improvements you have included in Q3.1.

- Attract new customers
- Improve customer retention

- Market demand data
- Regional or state destination research
- Competitor analysis

This helps judges understand the evidence-based decision-making behind the strategy.

Consideration during the research phase as to how the strategy aligns with local, regional or state destination/marketing plans/strategies would be seen favourably. For example: regional positioning statements or destination marketing strategies, campaign themes, target markets, product pillars.

(?) Authenticity

Demonstrate the steps taken to ensure that any promotion of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander culture is represented in an authentic and respectful way.

For example, consultation with Traditional Owners, Elders or local community representatives, seeking permissions and approvals, using Indigenous artists, engaging with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander marketing agencies/designers etc.
